

Why Does My Stomach Hurt All the Time?

Ask your doctor for the simple blood test

Most common symptoms found in children*

- ▶ Abdominal bloating and pain
- ▶ Chronic diarrhea
- ▶ Vomiting
- ▶ Constipation
- ▶ Pale, foul-smelling, or fatty stool
- ▶ Weight loss
- ▶ Fatigue
- ▶ Irritability and behavioral issues
- ▶ Dental enamel defects of the permanent teeth
- ▶ Delayed growth and puberty
- ▶ Short stature

*There are 300 known symptoms related to celiac disease. Often thought to affect the stomach, celiac disease is a genetic autoimmune disorder of the small intestine caused by a reaction to gluten. Untreated celiac disease can lead to the development of other autoimmune disorders, anemia, osteoporosis, infertility, epilepsy, lymphoma and intestinal cancers.

For more information, visit Celiac Disease Foundation

celiac.org